Sports Afield has for October a very interesting article on the White river. The northwest part of Colorado is and must be for some time to come the hunting and fishing ground for sportsmen, and this article therefore has an especial interest.

The Palmer Lake Herald hailed its first number a few days ago. Blaine himself, it is doubtful that no republican has spoken with greater distinctness and power on the issues of the campaign than Harrison. Unfortunately for his accepted leadership he was not chosen as the head of the ticket, but now that he has been chosen as the second man on the ticket, his utterances have all shown that he was worthy of the position to which he was placed.
